WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/JP2004/014917

Box No. 1 Basis of this opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
☐ This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language
_____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rule 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material
☐ a sequence listing
☐ table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material
☐ in written format
☐ in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing
☐ contained in the international application as filed.
☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table(s) relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.

PCT/JP2004/014917

Box No. V	Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement
1. Statement
Novelty (N)	Claims	2, 3, 8, 9, 11-14, 16, 17	YES
	Claims	1, 4-7, 10, 15, 18	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	2, 3, 8, 9, 11-14, 16, 17	YES
	Claims	1, 4-7, 10, 15, 18	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-18	YES
	Claims		NO
2. Citations and explanations:
Document 1: Abe, Umamizuka, "Nodo Gakushu to Hakken Kagaku", edited by Morishita, Miyano, "Hakken Kagaku to Data Mining", Kyoritsu Shuppan Co., Ltd. 05 May 2000, pages 64 to 72 Document 1 (in particular, see "2.3 Query by Boosting" described on page 67) describes an active learning method and system in which a hypothesis is generated using sampled learning data, a function value for each point of a candidate questioning point is predicted using the generated hypothesis, the questioning point whose predicted points are most diverse is selected, and the learning data is updated through an actual function value relating to the questioning point is obtained from outside. "Learning data", "hypothesis", "a candidate questioning point", "a function value", "a questioning point" described in document 1 correspond to "known data", "learning result", "unknown data", "label value", "next data to be learned", respectively. Because document 1 (page 67, left column, lines 5-8) describes the selection of a questioning point based on the "total weight of hypothesis", it is equivalent to calculating the next data to be learned based on weighting. In addition, because the last line on page 67 of document 1 describes "a sample of number m of data obtained in accordance with distributed Dt", it is equivalent to performing sampling according to weighting. Therefore, the inventions of claims 1, 4-7, 10, 15 and 18 do not appear to possess novelty or involve an inventive step. Grouping known data or unknown data is neither described in documents cited in the ISR; nor can it be obvious taking into consideration a common general technical knowledge. Thus, the inventions of claims 2, 3, 8, 9, 11-14, 16 and 17 appear to possess novelty and involve an inventive step.

Box No. VIII Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:

- (1) Neither claims, the description or drawings describes clearly how to operate grouping.
- (2) In the inventions of claims 1-18, when calculating the next data to be learned, how to group the results of a prediction and how to calculate it are unclear.
